Resident Evil 3 Gave My Friends Heart Attacks

Seventh grade. Afternoon meeting up with the guys. Play Resident Evil 3. It was my buddy's turn to take up the controller and confront Nemesis. Of course, at the time none of us knew Nemesis would show up. Playing Jill, she ran around the complex and into a building with wooden stairs. My other friend and I watched our friend play silently. Both of us were behind him leaning on the sofa. We were so engrossed with the game I think the world fell silent around us. As Jill climbed up the stairs... Nemesis jumped onto the scene through a window.

I screamed to the top of my lungs, shocked by the sudden rude intrusion. My friend dropped the controller out of fright while my other friend fell onto the floor and shook like a madman. I didn't know how loud I screamed but I think it was loud enough my sister ran from upstairs to downstairs asking if we alright. I think she expected a burglar or something. Instead, she witnessed the carnage of my friend lying half dead on the floor and the other one grabbing his heart in shock. I gently explained to my sister that it was the game that made me scream. Then I released a lame, low and inaudible laughter at the stupidity I caused.

My sister blinked, shook her head and returned to her nest of a bedroom. As for my two guy friends, it took them fifteen minutes to recover from the shock and continued playing with a straight face.

It was safe to say that they never wanted me to stand behind or beside them again in case I screamed.

Bayonetta Boom Crash

Bayonetta is a great game to play, that is, if you know what you're doing most of the time!

The epic fail started after I was done riding Route 666. I was faced with 3 Joys. I didn't think too much of it when I battled Joy and performed my Torture Attacks. It didn't help when I was battling and I forgot I was on a freaking highway. With that being said, I saw the first low health Joy died by getting run over by a car. So I thought, "Okay n00b, let's try to not get hit alright? Wear down the Joys enough so they can get run over and you can move on. Sounds good? Good!" Um, in theory it worked in my head... in actuality it was COMPLETELY different.

I think it was while battling the second Joy, I was a little too careless and my health was extremely low. Like, pulsing red low. So while unleashing some moves, I jumped up to avoid an incoming car then while I was about to land and... got struck by a moving truck.

Wait, what? And then it dawned on me: I just got hit by a truck. I JUST GOT HIT BY A TRUCK. Who would have thought jumping to evade Joy's attack would land me in front of a truck? I can just see it now; slow-mo in my head watching Bayonetta getting hit by the truck prompting red roses to explode from her body. Then Game Over. Wow. That was sooo... sooo... n00bish.

Until now I'm horrified to remember the extent of my epic fail. Of course it gave me a couple moments of good laughs to console my inner humiliation. Yay, me.

The God of War Cannot Fly

This is from God of War 3, in Hades' realm. This is from the beginning of the game where you have to fly from platform to platform, meet the archers then you move on to the next platform where you encounter 2 dogs.

No matter how many times I tried to fly from the platform to the next one, I kept on falling. I tried again, and I didn't glide and I fell. This probably happened 10 times until I gave up. At the beginning you press X twice to glide but somehow I can't master it so I asked my friend. I told her that I was having issues with God of War 3. I never said what it was though. She said she'd help me so when I went over to her house, I pointed to her where I was stuck.

She blinked at the screen. Then she stared at me. Then there was silence. I felt like an idiot. Then she asked me, "Is... Is this where you're having trouble with?" I nodded. Then she face-palmed, literally. She told me later she thought I was having trouble with beating Hades or something. Instead it was just me and my failing flying skills...

She took away the controller and showed me, voila! Problem solved.

I felt like an idiot, a tool and a fool! It was embarrassing at the time but now that that's past, I can laugh at it. I remember how well she just stared at me for the longest time because I can't fly properly but I can beat Hades on Titan mode no problem. Apparently I'm 'special' (not sure if that was a compliment or an insult at the time).

Kunika Kishi

I'm a proud videogamer gal basically. I love playing role playing games to God of War-like series. Basically I'm very random at what I love and do, I'm a walking enigma if you ask me.

Why is the website called bytestories.com?

This is a place for "byte-sized" stories and there is a 1500 character (about 250 words) limit for two main reasons. Firstly, we want you to know that "War and Peace" isn't required to leave your mark. Secondly, it takes about 2 minutes to read each story meaning you can head here whenever you want a quick (and entertaining) read.

If you would like to share a story or create your own eBook, simply head to bytestories.com, Register an account and click on the "Share a Story" button.
