The perks of watching a chick flick

There are some movies that I remember fondly of, movies like 'Lion King', 'Free Willy' and 'Two Girls and One Cup'; movies that left me feeling warm and fuzzy on the inside, just like a rattlesnake bite. I take comfort in watching them from time to time. It is like taking a stroll down memory lane, it brings me back to the time when I was crying at the beginning of 'Lion King' or to the time when I was obsessed with swimming in an aquarium after watching 'Free Willy'.

I have been watching a lot of movies lately and I got to tell you, apart from my burgeoning bandwidth usage and waist line, life has been shit, I mean great. One of my recent favourites would have to be 'The Perks of Being a Wallflower'. The movie is about an introvert freshman who is going through a tough time at school and is befriended by two seniors who helped him through. It is a typical teen movie with a cliché ending but I like watching movies like that from time to time. I like feeling good at the end of a movie, especially after devouring a barrel of salted popcorns.

For some bizarre reason, the movie got me thinking about my time at high school. I was never the popular kid. I was the quiet one with an uncompromising stare and a shovel covered in blood, the only normal person in school.

About Author

Ting Lim

I am a comedian based in Brisbane, Australia. As like any other comic, I have developed a penchant for social awkwardness and freebies at pubs. I also dabble in freelance writing, black magic and everything in between. You can read more about me on my website. (Please do, I am desperate.)

Why is the website called bytestories.com?

This is a place for "byte-sized" stories and there is a 1500 character (about 250 words) limit for two main reasons. Firstly, we want you to know that "War and Peace" isn't required to leave your mark. Secondly, it takes about 2 minutes to read each story meaning you can head here whenever you want a quick (and entertaining) read.

If you would like to share a story or create your own eBook, simply head to bytestories.com, Register an account and click on the "Share a Story" button.
