Foot in mouth

In the many years I worked selling boats, here is my most embarrassing moment.

I was walking through the boat yard and came across a young couple who seemed interested in buying a new boat. Accordingly, I was happy to show them around.

Everything was running smoothly until I said... just a little too much.

You see, the woman decided to take a closer inspection of the last boat they were interested in by climbing inside. And as she was dismounting, I said to her, "Oh, you'd better be careful coming down the ladder being pregnant and all."

There was a pause and then she stated these dreaded words: "I'm not pregnant."

Do you think I got that sale?

Why is the website called bytestories.com?

This is a place for "byte-sized" stories and there is a 1500 character (about 250 words) limit for two main reasons. Firstly, we want you to know that "War and Peace" isn't required to leave your mark. Secondly, it takes about 2 minutes to read each story meaning you can head here whenever you want a quick (and entertaining) read.

If you would like to share a story or create your own eBook, simply head to bytestories.com, Register an account and click on the "Share a Story" button.
